YOUR PROFILE

YOUR PATTERN

Burnout from doing things that no longer mean anything. The work gets done, the life looks fine, but the thread connecting effort to purpose has gone quiet. Lost the sense of who they are outside of what they produce. Keeps moving because stopping feels worse.

Your emotional signature

Capable and competent but privately purposeless. Excels at a life they no longer feel connected to. Answers "what do you want?" with silence or someone else's answer. Has been doing the right things for so long they cannot remember what they actually care about.

TRIGGER

Being asked what you want and having no genuine answer · Achieving something that should feel meaningful but does not · Comparing your internal experience to others' apparent purpose · The question: is this it?

RESPONSE

Change external circumstances hoping the feeling changes · Get busier to avoid sitting with the emptiness · Perform purpose convincingly while privately hollow · Conclude something is fundamentally wrong with you

ACTION

Take on new projects as distraction · Research major life changes without acting on them · Isolate from people who seem to have found their why · Lose yourself in other people's lives through content consumption

COST

A growing gap between your external life and your internal experience · Increasing difficulty accessing genuine motivation · Relationships feeling surface-level because you are not really present in them · The creeping sense that time is passing without direction

Your 4-week arc

Week 2 — Remember	Excavate values and identity from underneath the performance
Week 3 — Reconnect	Return to what used to matter and test if it still does
Week 4 — Rebuild	Ikigai mapping and building toward genuine direction

WHEN YOU SPIRAL

3-step protocol for each acute moment. Use it — do not think about it.

OVERWHELM

Heart racing. Too much at once. Cannot prioritise.

1. Ground your body
   Both feet flat on the floor. Full exhale — longer out than in. Say: I am here, I am safe right now.
2. Name one thing only
   Not the list. One thing. The single most pressing item. Write it. Everything else is later.
3. Two minutes then decide
   Work only on that one thing for two minutes. After two minutes: stop or continue.

SHUTDOWN

Numb, detached, going through the motions.

1. Name it out loud
   Say or write: I am in shutdown. My system is protecting me. It is temporary. I am not broken.
2. One physical action
   Cold water on wrists. Stand and stretch arms wide. Walk to a window. Body re-engages through movement.
3. 5-4-3-2-1 grounding
   5 things you see. 4 you can touch. 3 you hear. 2 you smell. 1 you taste. Returns attention to the present.

ANXIETY SPIKE

Sudden panic. Chest tight. Catastrophic thoughts starting.

1. 4-7-8 breath
   In through nose for 4. Hold for 7. Out through mouth for 8. Three cycles. Activates parasympathetic response.
2. Question the catastrophe
   Ask: is this happening right now, or am I predicting? Anxiety lives in the future. You live here.
3. Reduce the scope
   What is one thing you can do or decide in the next 10 minutes? Do only that.

WEEK 1

ACKNOWLEDGE

Name the emptiness without immediately trying to fill it.

DAILY SCHEDULE

TIME	PRACTICE	WHAT TO DO
6:30 AM	4-7-8 breath	3 rounds. After the third exhale: what do I actually care about today?
6:35 AM	Values check	Which of your 5 values are you living today? Name one. One is enough to orient around.
6:38 AM	Micro-joy scan	What is one thing you are genuinely curious about or interested in right now? No filter.
12:00 PM	Purpose temperature	Rate connection to meaning today 1-10. Not happiness. Meaning.
12:03 PM	Identity note	One sentence: who am I today outside of what I produce?
9:00 PM	Identity journal	15 minutes. One of the identity prompts. No editing. The truth lives in the unfiltered version.
9:15 PM	Thread pull	What produced even a flicker of genuine interest today? Follow it one step.
9:18 PM	Values audit	Did today honour any of your 5 values? If not: what would have?

WEEK 1 FOCUS

Name the emptiness without immediately trying to fill it. Direction is not found by thinking harder about it. It is found by moving — toward the smallest genuine interest — and noticing what pulls. The map reveals through walking, not through waiting.

TECHNIQUE LIBRARY

HOW THE TOOLS WORK

Six techniques matched to The Lost One. Exact steps.

01 — VALUES CLARIFICATION

List 20 values. Circle the 5 that feel most true right now — not the ones you should have, the ones you actually recognise as yours. These are your compass.

02 — MICRO-JOY

What are the smallest things that produce a flicker of genuine interest? Not happiness — interest. These are the threads. Pull them.

03 — IDENTITY JOURNALING

Complete these prompts: Before I became what others needed me to be, I was... / The version of me I've been pretending doesn't exist wants... / If no one was watching, I would...

04 — IKIGAI MAPPING

Four circles: what you love, what you are good at, what the world needs, what you can be paid for. The overlap is your direction. It rarely appears fully formed — it reveals through movement.

05 — PURPOSE RECONNECT

Interview yourself: what did you care about at 12 years old? At 22? What has stayed consistent? The through-line is often the thing you dismissed as impractical.

06 — STRENGTHS INVENTORY

List what you are genuinely good at — not what you were trained to do. These are different things. Talent that feels effortless to you feels extraordinary to others.

YOUR PATTERN CARD — READ AT THE START OF EACH WEEK

THE LOOP
& THE INTERRUPT

TRIGGER

Being asked what you want and having no genuine answer · Achieving something that should feel meaningful but does not · Comparing your internal experience to others' apparent purpose · The question: is this it?

Interrupt: These activate something real. That does not make them emergencies. Notice the activation without acting on it.

RESPONSE

Change external circumstances hoping the feeling changes · Get busier to avoid sitting with the emptiness · Perform purpose convincingly while privately hollow · Conclude something is fundamentally wrong with you

Interrupt: Protective responses, not character flaws. Slow them by 3 seconds. That is all that is needed.

Take on new projects as distraction · Research major life changes without acting on them · Isolate from people who seem to have found their why · Lose yourself in other people's lives through content consumption

Interrupt: Looking for relief. Ask: does this give relief, or silence while the real thing grows? Rest without disappearing.

COST

A growing gap between your external life and your internal experience · Increasing difficulty accessing genuine motivation · Relationships feeling surface-level because you are not really present in them · The creeping sense that time is passing without direction

Interrupt: Each 3-second pause at step 2 reduces the cost at step 4. Small interruptions, compounded over a month, produce real change.

YOU ARE NOT BROKEN.

YOU CAUGHT IT.

THAT TOOK HONESTY.

Use this on the hard days. Especially the hard days.
